1. Introduction

- 1.1 HSDC, which comprises Havant, South Downs and Alton campuses, is committed to providing and promoting equal opportunities in employment and learning and to avoiding unlawful discrimination. We believe that celebration of a diverse community of learning is an intrinsic element in achieving successful outcomes for our students and staff.
- 1.2 Compliance with this policy should ensure that employees do not commit unlawful acts of discrimination.
- 1.3 Striving to ensure that the College environment is free of harassment and bullying and that everyone is treated with dignity and respect is a key aspect of promoting equal opportunities at HSDC.

2. Scope

- 2.1 This policy applies to everyone who becomes or seeks to become a member of the HSDC community whether as a member of staff (permanent or temporary), applicants, students, contractors, Governors, volunteers or other stakeholders. This policy applies to all college activities.
- 2.2 The College aims to eliminate discrimination on the grounds of age, disability, gender, race, religion or belief, ethnic or national origin, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, marriage and civil partnership or social class.

3. Purpose

- 3.1 The purpose of this policy is to make clear the expectations of HSDC in promoting equality and celebrating diversity to ensure a consistently high quality and pro-active approach to fulfilling our responsibilities. Compliance with this policy should ensure that employees do not commit unlawful acts of discrimination.
- 3.2 All staff and students are required to abide by this policy and actions and words that are contrary to either the word or the spirit of this policy will be robustly challenged through appropriate disciplinary measures.

4. Legal Requirements

4.1 This Equality and Diversity policy is based on the Equality Act 2010, which defines the protected characteristics as:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender
- Race
- Religion and Belief
- Sexual Orientation
- Gender Reassignment
- Pregnancy and Maternity
- Marriage & Civil Partnerships

Whilst all nine characteristics apply in the employment duties of the Act, the characteristic of marriage and civil partnerships is not included in the education duties of the Act. It is unlawful to either directly or indirectly discriminate against a person on these grounds.

4.2 Other aspects of a person's identity, background or circumstances can cause them to experience discrimination, for example a person's socio-economic status, class, background, appearance or alternative lifestyle. The College is committed to advancing equality and eliminating discrimination on these and other grounds.

4.3 The College has an Equality and Diversity Action Plan which is published on the staff Intranet. The E&D Action Plan outlines the College's aims and plans in terms of equality and diversity. Consultation with stakeholders has taken place to agree equality objectives and an action plan, which are incorporated into the E&D Action Plan.

5. Marketing & Recruitment

5.1 College marketing and publicity material, recruitment and admission procedures will focus on the individual needs of students.

5.2 Marketing and publicity material will assure all types of applicant that they will be welcomed at the College. The College will identify courses where particular groups are underrepresented and implement strategies to promote equality. eliminating discrimination on these and other grounds.

5.3 All advertising for staff vacancies will include a statement on the College's Equality and Diversity Policy. All recruitment procedures, promotions, transfers and training for staff will be carried out in strict accordance with current legislation.

6. The Curriculum and Learner Experience

- 6.1 The curriculum includes course content, learning and teaching methods, work experience and shadowing, and methods of review, assessment and evaluation. The College will provide a curriculum that offers all students an equal opportunity to achieve their academic potential and which ensures there is parity of esteem between all courses.
- 6.2 The curriculum of the College will promote positive images of all peoples, regardless of age, gender, ethnic group, class, sexual orientation, transgender, physical or cognitive ability or other personal circumstances. In every course and subject the resource materials presented to students will be monitored and reviewed so that they are free of discriminatory attitudes, images and language (unless they are to be analysed critically in the context of the pursuit of equal opportunities), and promote good relations between people from different groups.
- 6.3 Any user of the College's Information Technology facilities, including E-Mail and the Internet, who creates or communicates any data or images that could be deemed as offensive to other members of the College or is in contravention of the College's Prevent Duty will be subject to the College's disciplinary procedures.
- 6.4 The College will ensure that all students have equal opportunity to access pastoral and academic support, facilities, trips and visits.

7. Equal Opportunities in Employment

- 7.1 The organisation will avoid unlawful discrimination in all aspects of employment including recruitment, promotion and opportunities for training, pay and benefits, discipline and selection for redundancy.
- 7.2 Person and job specifications will be limited to those requirements that are necessary for the effective performance of the job. Candidates for employment or promotion will be assessed objectively against the requirements for the job, taking account of any reasonable adjustments that may be required for candidates with a disability. Disability and personal or home commitments will not form the basis of employment decisions except in exceptional circumstances.
- 7.3 The organisation will consider any possible indirectly discriminatory effect of its standard working practices, including the number of hours to be worked, the times at which these are to be worked and the place at which work is to be done, when considering requests for variations to these standard working practices and will refuse such requests only if the organisation considers it has good reasons, unrelated to any protected characteristic, for doing so. The organisation will comply with its obligations in relation to statutory requests for contract variations. The organisation will also make reasonable adjustments to its standard working practices to overcome barriers caused by disability.

- 7.4 The organisation will monitor the ethnic, gender and age composition of the existing workforce and of applicants for jobs (including promotion), and the number of people with disabilities within these groups, and will consider and take any appropriate action to address any problems that may be identified as a result of the monitoring process

8. Customers, suppliers and other people not employed by the organisation.

- 8.1 The organisation will not discriminate unlawfully against customers using or seeking to use goods, facilities or services provided by the organisation.
- 8.2 Employees should report any bullying or harassment by customers, suppliers, visitors or others to their manager who will take appropriate action.

9. Training

- 9.1 The organisation will provide training in equal opportunities to managers and others likely to be involved in recruitment or other decision-making where equal opportunities issues are likely to arise.
- 9.2 The College will provide training to all existing and new employees and others engaged to work at the College. The College will provide additional training to managers to enable them to deal more effectively with complaints of bullying and harassment.
